Personal

Emily Llewellyn

2009 marked a successful year for Emily Llewellyn (20) who is the only rider to have ridden on seven consecutive Youth European Championship teams, winning five golds, one silver and two bronze medals and in 2008 was the European Young Rider Champion. (Pardon Me)

In 2006 Emily won the Pony Club Championships with the Dutch bred Pardon Me and last year won the Under 25 championships at Bramham and then went on to win team gold and individual bronze at the Young Rider European championship in Belgium. She was also the 2009 British National University Champion a competition decided after riding unfamiliar horses in dressage and show jumping. 2009 also marked her first appearance at Badminton (Society Spice).

Subsequently Emily was the 2009 BE winner of the Edy Goldman Trophy awarded to the rider under 21 gaining the most points during the year and she has been selected for the World Class Development Programme 2009-2011. In November she was Sussex Sports 'young sports personality of the year' beating five short-listed athletes to the accolade.

Emily who is based in East Sussex is in her third year at Sussex University studying Business and Management.

Emily's mother Cindy (nee Harris) is a former competitor and a BE accredited trainer. She has completed Badminton and Burghley, show jumped at top level and competed at pure dressage to Prix St George and Intermediare level.
