Personal

British based New Zealand rider Dan Jocelyn is known for his partnership with Silence with who he represented New Zealand in the 2002 WEG (12th). The combination was previously selected for the 2000 Sydney Olympics but had to withdraw due to injury. With Silence, who was bred at the Mamaku stud, Dan contested four-star events for 11 seasons and after his retirement after Burghley in 2008 Silence was competed at lower level events by British team dressage rider Laura Bechtolsheimer.

Dan was born New South Wales Australia and is now runs a yard near Newbury with partner Tanya Cleverly – previously 3rd at Badminton (1993) with Watkins. The couple has a daughter, Jaz (7). In his spare time Dan enjoys golf.

Special Attorney by thoroughbred Criminal Law was bred by owner. He has a full brother Special Advocate also ridden to four-star by Dan.
