Personal

Caroline arrived in Scotland from New Zealand in 1992 to work in Clive Storey's point to point yard and raced five times before 'retiring'. While there she took over the ride on Clive's three-star horse Caliber finishing 12th in her first three-day at Bramham. She then worked for former Badminton winner Ian Stark grooming for him in Atlanta in 1996 the same year she married Richard Powell and moved to the outskirts of Kelso where Richard manages a holiday park as well as breeding sheep and horses. In 1997, she took over the ride on Jenny Leggate's Cocky-Olly-Bird and competed at her first four-star (Burghley 1999) and the following year had her first ride at Badminton with Dalliance (11th) formerly ridden by Chris Bartle. She has also had Badminton success with Lady Howick's mare Softly Softly whose offspring Caroline will soon compete. With Lenamore she was selected for the NZ team at 2006 WEG and the 2008 Olympic Games. Caroline is an Accredited BE trainer.
