Personal

Owner/rider Sharon was a member of the British team to win team bronze at the 2008 Olympic Games (Hong Kong) on her Badminton entry Tankers Town.

Sharon did not start eventing until her late teens. After a gap year before university she decided on a full-time career with horses and spent eight months training with Ruth McMullen after which she started her own business from her parent's home in Suffolk producing young horses and teaching.

Tankers Town was bought as a four-year-old from Sean and Sally Parkin. Six years later they made their Badminton debut and after a successful placing in 2006 the combination made their team debut at the World Equestrian Games in Aachen where they were ninth individually and won team silver.

In 2002 Sharon, who 'takes fitness seriously' enjoying swimming, running and cycling, ran the New York Marathon in aid of Kenneth Clawson's Steps training programme and the Rainbow Trust Children's charity. Since the Olympics Sharon, who is single, enjoys giving talks and lectures.
