Personal

Clayton and his wife Lucinda (nee Murray who has taken Australian citizenship) run Team Fredericks from their 30 horse yard in Wiltshire. Clayton was a national young rider champion in Australia before relocating to the UK in 1994. He first rode for Australia the following year at the Open European Championships. In 2005 Clayton was the inaugural winner of the FEI World Cup series with Ben Along Time and claimed back the title in 2008. The combination also won individual silver and team bronze at the 2006 World Equestrian Games in Aachen and in 2007 were winners at the Lexington Kentucky four-star. In 2008 Mr & Mrs Fredericks were members of the Australian silver medal Olympic team in Hong Kong. Clayton is the lead singer of his band Snatch and he and Lucinda have a daughter Ellie (6).
