Personal

Simone Dietermann a former German Young Rider is based in Saerbeck, near Osnabruck. She trains with Oliver Oelrich a well known German national dressage rider and trainer of young horses & former German event team rider and national Young Rider coach Rudiger Schwarz. Free Easy was acquired from her Uncle in 2001 as a four-year-old. Free Easy is by the prolific German dressage sire Florestan. The combination ably demonstrated their dressage skills at Boekelo last year leading the competition after dressage scoring over 78%. She finished Boekelo in second place with Free Easy and was a member of the winning German team. The combination also won Kreuth three-star in 2007. At Boekelo she was also third after dressage Flambeau Z her former Young Rider horse from as far back as 2002. Last year with Flambeau Z Simone won the World Cup qualifier at Marbach. Aside from horses Simone enjoys playing badminton.
