Personal

Portugese rider Duarte comes from Cartaxo, North of Lisbon. Duarte has competed in England during the last five seasons.

He made a name for himself in 2008 coming eighth at Bramham which he followed with a win in the three-star at Blair Castle with the Irish bred Brave Heart who he has brought through the levels. The combination was 28th at the European Championships last year.

A rider for Fernhill Sport Horses based in Kilkenny owned by Irish international rider Carol Gee Duarte has also had success with Fernhill Urco now with Mary King, and Fernhill Gloster Rebel with who he was 6th in the three-star at Blair Castle last year

His brother Francisco also rides and competes in eventing.
